He led his life as he said, and did what he said. Four continents and twelve countries have adopted his principles. Though he did not get a noble prize, we should not forget that he is the Father of our Nation. That is why we call him 'Mahatma.' He used to walk during all the 'Satyagrah movements.' His human values are a model for today's society. Lal Bahadur Shastri also used to follow Gandhiji's principles. Gandhi's simplicity, self-esteem, honesty, and other principles should become an inspiration for all Indians. We need leaders like Shastriji, who called the people of the nation to support farmers and soldiers through his statement 'Jai Jawan Jai Kisan' and take our country towards the path of development and progress," he said.
